

Church Profile

The En Comunidad participant church aspires to:

Embrace a Holistic Culture

Embrace the truth that God's redemptive plan encompasses the whole person and all of creation and is not limited to spirituality alone but instead, spirituality is the cross section that touches creation.

Engage in Christian Community Development

Embrace the truth that God is actively creating and restoring the world and the church is partnering with Him to fulfill that mission as an essential component of their purpose.

Operate as a Collaborative Body

Embrace the truth that the body of Christ is interconnected and interdependent and every believer has been activated to fulfill their specific function as they work in unity with others to transform their immediate community and the world.

Adopt Healthy practices

The church leadership recognizes the importance of organizational healthy practices such as building organizational capacity and developing collaboration to effectively engage in the church's local mission which includes engagement in community development.

The En Comunidad participant church will:

- Engage in a leadership assessment.
- Assess their church as an organization.
- Explore new ways of being/ doing church.
- Embrace change.
- Listen to and learn from others, including different Christian traditions.
- Engage in community development.
- Prioritize time for learning and growth.
- Be open and expand their knowledge as leaders.

The En Comunidad Cohort

The cohort is a small group of 5 leadership teams (3 to 5 members) representing 4-5 different congregations

Types of Cohorts

Online Cohort: A cohort of churches across the US engaging in virtual sessions, except for the Immersion experience (a 2 day immersion experience with costs covered by the program).

Hybrid Cohort: For churches geographically located in the Rio Grande Valley Texas. Sessions will be virtual and in-person, including the 2-day local Immersion experience.

The En Comunidad church group is formed by:

1. The General/ Lead Pastor of the church.
2. A diverse* group of 2 to 4 participants who:
 - Are in a leadership position
 - Are flourishing as a leader in the church
 - Embrace change
 - Aspire to see their church as the one described in the church profile
 - Can commit to the full program (see calendar below)

*Diverse: participants represent diversity within the church, including age, gender, and cultural background.
